A Thing Accomplished

IN another column will be found the notice of the close of the Wanamaker Library offer. The winding up of this enterprise deserves editorial comment in our store news.

From the inception of the work down to this, the close of its greatest possible distribution, everything has been done on a large scale. The work itself speaks for itself, and one even slightly acquainted with the illimitable field of literature can realize the task of setting it within limits. The purchase of our edition of the work was the largest book transaction ever recorded. The distribution of the work through our stores undoubtedly surpassed by many thousands of dollars any similar effort on the part of any publisher or store. It surpasses even the totals reached by the Ridpath History of the World, sold by us last year. The real and obvious merit of the Library joined with the low price at which we sell it, has accomplished wonders.

We will receive orders across our counters for this library during to-day and to-morrow, and mail orders through the week. Choice is confined to the medium-priced bindings. After this exhaustion of our edition the publishers assure us that no sets can be sold except at double our prices.

Another Word of Underwear

There are no longer the million-and-a-half pieces with which we began our White Sale. But there remain full lines in the best underwear purchasable for the money.

Such goods as these are not articles of commonplace selling. Perhaps you may think that good muslin underwear is simply good muslin underwear, and one piece much like another at the same price.

Not at all, -see these, made under our own supervision, under conditions affording few parallels for clean and careful work, and note (when you come) the difference in quality-for-price that results from an order for more than a million and a half of garments at one time.

There is an occasional demand for extremely elaborate finishings and hangings in summer homes. We supply that demand thoroughly and sensibly. But the strong demand is for the "cheaper things that are just as pretty," and we do well with that sort of thing, too.

We say "inexpensive" in just the right sense. Prices are advancing, the demand is tremendous, and stocks cannot be large enough. There is no apparent reason for lowering prices on such goods as these, but we do it, just the same:

Our edition of The International Library was bound in four styles. Two of these styles are sold out. Two are still on sale. Wednesday there will probably be one only. After Wednesday, absolutely none of any kind.

Only Two Days More

The half-price sale of The International Library ends Wednesday. Our special edition of this greatest of all collected libraries will then be sold out. This completes our largest transaction in books, a transaction measured by hundreds of thousands of dollars, over ninety (90) CAR LOADS of books and a saving of one-half to the members of The Wanamaker Library Club.

We regret closing the club, but the publishers refuse to sell us more at the special price, so our friends must profit by this offer before Wednesday, or not at all.

No More Cloth Sets

Some must be disappointed now, because only two styles of binding remain. The cloth sets and the full levant are all gone. The two that we still have are, fortunately, the two medium priced styles -the ones we specially recommend. Unless you call or write Tuesday you may be restricted to one style only.

Mail orders from out-of-town friends sent in direct response to this advertisement will be accepted throughout this week by special arrangement with the publishers. But no orders will be received at the counter after Wednesday. If you delay you must pay the regular price—which is double our club price.

The International is a COMPLETE LIBRARY in itself, a gathering together in convenient form of the best writings of the best authors of all times. It includes the choicest work of famous modern, mediæval and ancient writers, and covers the whole field of books since the dawn of letters.

In all, about 825 authors are represented and the selections are of generous and satisfying length. The editors' constant aim has been to have each piece complete, telling its own story and preserving

The Library contains over 500 full-page illustrations, many of them being reproductions of the masterpieces of great artists gathered from the art collections of Europe. There are many scenes made famous by the pens of famous writers, and pictures of the homes and libraries of authors call up pleasing memories to the minds of all who love them for the hours of pleasure gained from their writings. Hundreds of full-page portraits of authors are also included.

To sum it all up, here are ten thousand pages of the best writings of the best writers who ever put pen to paper.
